

Bridges

Words and music by Terah Lynn, (c) 2014

Verse 1

Here on the surface, I know there's an underneath
But, when I start to dig, will I find I'm only skin deep?

Verse 2

I compare who I am now with who I used to be
Is this change for good or will I ever again recognize me?

Chorus

When I come to the bridges I have to cross
Should I burn them or leave them whole?
Is it wise to cut the ties
Just to free my soul?

Verse 3

Why does letting go have to be such a painful thing?
Will this hurt ever heal or will it stay a wound I keep covering?

Chorus 2

When I come to the bridges I have to cross
Should I burn them or leave them whole?
It's not always wise, because cutting the ties
Sometimes mars the soul

Chorus 3

When I'm broken and I only see the scars
When the questions overwhelm my soul
There is hope in the Healer of all
He can make me whole
